

THE OFFICERS TESTIFY.

THEY SEARCHED THE HOUSE WITHOUT ANY WARRANT.

Captain Klemme Swears No Robbery Was Committed and No Chinese Entered the House.

The last witness introduced by the prosecution yesterday in the Chinese robbery case was Ah Fook, who testified: Neja Fook got me to go to the place in question as an interpreter. Saw Klemme, Cordes and Rathke searching under the bed on the verandah. They found a little roll of opium, and Klemme tested it. One of the Chinese women said Xavier brought it in his pocket. I don't know whether Xavier heard her say it or not, he was three or four feet away. Klemme said, "No husband home, I better skip." Then he put the opium in his pocket and walked off.

Cross-examination—I did not see Ping Chong until after Klemme left. When I got there there was no guard at the door. Rathke was on the verandah, Xavier was searching under the bed.

Then the prosecution rested, and there being no evidence against Chung Mun, he was discharged.

For the defense Captain Klemme was the first witness. His testimony was as follows:—I went to the place on the evening in question. About 8 p. m. I got information from Wong Chow and Chong Mun, in consequence of which I went there. I stopped in the lane and looked through the fence, sent Wong Chow inside to the steps, gave him $1 to buy opium. He went only to the steps, did not go inside. The woman came out, took the dollar from him, then somebody called out, and she gave him back the money. Then I went in with Cordes, Rathke and Xavier. We went over the fence, went in the door of the house and met Wong Shee. I asked her for her husband. She answered in English that no one was home. Cordes, Rathke and Xavier went in with me. I left Rathke and Xavier at veranda door and they remained there. Wong Chow did not go inside. I took a lamp and looked around the house for a man, but found none. Wong Shee offered to show me all her trunks, but I declined. No trunks were broken while I was there. Then I went out on the veranda. Leong Shee was very anxious I should not disturb her bed, so I told Cordes to search it and he found the insect there. No Chinese were in the house at all. I was there about fifteen minutes. Ping Chong was with me all the time I was there; so was Wong Shee. Wong Shee remained in her room when I went to the other room, but Wong Chow, Hong Chow and Xavier were not in the room with her. No complaint about any robbery was made till Tuesday p. m. I did not see any broken trunk. I did not open any trunks or search any. Wong Shee was very anxious to open her trunks, but I would not let her. I heard no cry of "hail in." I saw a box of jewelry in Wong Shee's room. She got it out of a trunk and showed it to me. It contained jewelry and money. I saw the same box there the next p. m. We asked to see the broken trunk. It was then in the middle of the sitting room; hinges were broken. It was not in that condition Monday evening.

Cross-examination—I did not leave at once when I found the husband was not at home because the woman acted so suspiciously and because I had had information that opium was sold there. I went in because the woman took the money; thought I had a right to. I made no arrest because no man was in the house. I found opium on the bed. I did not see opium put there by Xavier; did not know he had put it there. I saw Cordes find the opium on the bed. The woman said it was her bed, but I did not arrest her because her husband was not there and because I did not know whether she or her husband put it there. After Wong Chow gave me back the money he went off.

Gus Cordes sworn—I am a policeman; went with Klemme that evening. He, Rathke, Xavier and I went into the yard. Neither Wong Chow nor any other Chinese went in. Klemme and I went into the house; Xavier and Rathke remained at the veranda door on the veranda. Klemme and I went into the different rooms. Xavier and Rathke were not in any of the rooms while we were there. They were ordered to stay at the veranda door and keep people out. I found opium on the veranda bed under the blanket.

Cross-examination—I searched by Klemme's order. Had no warrant. Rathke sworn—I am a policeman; went with Klemme to place in question. Xavier and I watched the door. Neither of us went into any of the rooms. Wong Chow did not go into the house or come out of it. Xavier sworn—I did not go into any of the rooms. Was with Rathke on the veranda all the time.

This ended the testimony for the defense, and the matter was taken under advisement until to-morrow.

Wanted the Earth.

A young German who had taken steamer passage on the City of New York made quite a disturbance on that vessel last night, because his accommodations were not equal to the cabin. When ordered to retire to the steerage or get off the vessel, he subsided. He promised to interview the captain and purser with his little tale of woe early this morning.

WILL BE A GREAT DAY

If the Bishop and the Ex-Queen's Other Supporters Have Their Way.

It is almost impossible to keep track of the number of days that have been set apart for Mrs. Dominis' reappearance on the throne which was not occupied by her forefathers. And yet there are some poor deluded mortals who still have hopes that such an event will happen on the 2nd of September, and that, as the old restoration day has been done away with by the Provisional Government, her ex-Majesty will not only celebrate her birthday, but a new restoration day at the same time.

Another event, not purely political, but semi-political-religious, which will take place on that day, if the Lord Bishop of the Anglican Church in Hawaii does not back down in the meantime, will be the adoption of means by his Lordship to enforce the members of the Second Congregation to attend his services or none at all. What measures his Lordship intends to adopt to keep the members of that congregation out of a church of their own building is known only in the innermost recesses of the breast of the head of the Anglican Church in Hawaii.

What with these two events and races at Kapiolani Park, baseball, football and cricket, the coming 2d of September bids fair to be a great day for reporters and others.

The exercises for the evening have not been determined yet, but the STAR suggests that a joint public reading from Moore, by Mrs. Dominis and the Bishop, would be quite an attraction, especially that poem in which these lines occur:

"O, ever this since childhood's hour
I've seen my fondest hopes decay."

A VERY PLEASANT AFFAIR.

The Monthly Social of the St. Andrew's Church Association.

The large schoolroom of the St. Andrew's Priory was crowded last night with the members of the St. Andrew's Church Association and their friends, the occasion being the regular monthly meeting and social of that society. Captain H. W. Mist, R. N., presided and the following musical entertainment was given:

First—Intermezzo, Piano and Organ.
Messrs. F. M. Wakefield and Wray Taylor.
Glee—"Song of the Triton."
Glee Club.
Song—"Can I Then Love Another?"
Mrs. Muller.
Duet—"Cavatina," Violoncello and Organ.
Messrs. Wray Taylor and F. M. Wakefield.
Song—"Love's Sorrow."
Mrs. E. D. Tenney.
Glee—"Fleur de Lis."
Glee Club.

Mrs. E. D. Tenney's song was loudly cheered, while the singing of the Glee Club, under the direction of Mr. Wakefield added much to the pleasure of those present, and was highly creditable, not only to the singers themselves, but to their instructor.

At the conclusion of the musical program ice cream and cake were handed round and the balance of the evening was spent in social conversation.

CHE-FA DAY IN COURT.

Japanese and Chinese Defendants Fined or Dismissed.

Most of Judge Foster's time was taken up to-day in hearing chefa cases, with one or two for assault and battery and an occasional drunk thrown in to relieve the monotony.

Ah Hin and Ah Wa, charged with fighting, were dismissed on the evidence of the arresting officer.

The bonds of Kaila and Nahuina were ordered forfeited for non-appearance.

The case against Kepuluna and Kaili for selling awa was continued until to-morrow.

Kaanaana pleaded guilty to violating section 3 of act 21 of the Provisional Government and was fined $4 and $1 costs. That section refers to gaming at chefa or anything else.

Yusidda (k) and Yucki (w) were charged with the same offense, but escaped with a reprimand.

Ah Tai and Pao, for assault and battery, were reprimanded and discharged, while sentence was suspended in the case of P. Manuel, charged with beating a common nuisance.

P. Ryan, for drunkenness, was discharged.

The U. S. Minister Got Wet.

Minister Blount was so favorably impressed with the beauty of the view obtained from the slopes of Tantalus on a recent visit that he essayed another trip yesterday with the intention of climbing to the summit and enjoying the magnificent views to be obtained from that height. In company with F. S. Dodge the Minister left on horseback, but before reaching the picnic grounds encountered three heavy showers, getting thoroughly wet through and being compelled to return home for fear of more. Mr. Blount will try it again some other day when old Jupiter Pluvius is in a more propitious mood.

A missionary party arriving on the City of New York was entertained by Consul Severance, Mrs. A. F. Judd and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Damon.

SAM PARKER'S AFFAIRS.

NO DISTINCT PROPOSALS TO CREDITORS.

An Effort Will be Made, However, to Find Out if Parker's Friends Will Help Him Out.

A morning paper states that at the meeting of Sam Parker's creditors yesterday afternoon the proposition was made that 20 per cent of the unsecured debts should be paid in cash and the balance secured by a fourth mortgage on the real estate owned by Mr. Parker. This statement is incorrect, as the STAR is informed by a member of the Committee. Owing to the absence of Mr. Widemann the report promised the meeting, and to hear which it was called, was not forthcoming. There has been more or less talk on the streets to the effect that Parker's friends would advance him enough money to pay 20 cents on the dollar of the unsecured debts, but so far no proposition looking to such a devoutly desired consummation has yet been made by Mr. Parker or any one on his behalf. After much discussion yesterday the whole matter was referred back to the Committee with instructions to try and obtain such an offer from Mr. Parker or any similar one by which the unsecured creditors will obtain something on their claims, even if it be only in the far distant future.

BUREAU OF AGRICULTURE.

An Important Resolution Affecting the Shipment of Trees, etc.

The Bureau of Agriculture held a special meeting at the Interior office this morning. There were present the Minister of the Interior, W. G. Irwin, John Ena and Commissioner Marsden.

The following resolution was passed: "Resolved: That until further notice no plants or trees of any description whatever shall be exported from the Island of Oahu to the other islands of the Hawaiian group." This is to prevent the further dissemination of the blight. Trees and plants in transit from foreign ports will be allowed to be carried to the other islands after thorough examination and certificate to that effect by the Commissioner, but they must not be removed from the wharf while here until shipped.

Minister Blount's Successor.

In an interview with Minister Blount this morning a STAR representative learned that the latest information that gentleman had about the appointment of his successor was dated at Washington June 7th last, and was to the effect that his application to be relieved would be acted on shortly. Minister Blount expects to see his successor in person or to hear some definite information about him on the Oceanic, due next Tuesday.

ESQUIMALT AND HAWAII.

It is reported that the Canadian and Imperial Governments have at last agreed upon the strengthening of the fortifications of Esquimalt harbor. The idea is to give Great Britain an impregnable naval station at that point. This will go far to secure her naval dominance on the Pacific, unless we adopt countervailing measures. Esquimalt will be to our Pacific Coast what Halifax is to our Atlantic seaboard, but within closer striking distance. It actually sits at the entrance of our second most important harbor on this coast, the terminus of two transcontinental railroads, and commands all access thereto.

The inner gates of Puget Sound, at Port Townsend and Deception Pass, are easily defensible. The naval station to be established further up the Sound may be made impregnable. All this will not prevent Esquimalt from holding the entrance unless our naval force on this coast is capable of keeping it open. The Strait of Juan de Fuca is too wide to be actually commanded by Esquimalt batteries, but they would cover a force of battle ships, torpedo boats, etc., which would effectually close the passage unless we were strong enough in like means to keep it open. With one first-class naval station at Mare Island and another on Puget Sound, and an effective force of vessels of various classes we could command the situation in the Straits of Fuca. Perhaps fortifications at Port Angeles or New Dungeness, or both, will ultimately form a part of our system of defense. They would furnish points of support and refuge for operations in the Strait.

There may be no connection between this agreement to fortify Esquimalt, and the recent establishment of a steam line between British Columbia, Hawaii and Sydney, but they come suspiciously near together. They also bear closely on the fact that President Cleveland by his folly is in a fair way to hand Hawaii over to Great Britain. The Provisional Government of the Islands, frankly asserts its purpose to seek British protection in case the annexation project fails. The new steam line comes in very conveniently, with the commercial facilities it offers, to encourage this proposition. As Esquimalt on the Pacific stands in place of Halifax on the Atlantic, so would Hawaii represent the Bismarcks, and complete the cordon of British posts along our coast on both oceans. If all these movements do not form a part of one broad and coherent design on the part of Great Britain, then appearances are very deceptive.

The moral of the situation is for us, while maintaining and strengthening ourselves at San Francisco bay and Puget Sound, to prevent the closing of the British naval and commercial station by annexing Hawaii, without any more foolishness about it. The "Cable Roads of the Pacific" is no key to the commercial station, while the main trans-Pacific lines of travel, with a cable from Honolulu to San Francisco it would also become the center of the future telegraphic system of the Pacific.—S. F. Bulletin.

NEWS IN A NUTSHELL.

Battalion drills are now of frequent occurrence.

The Helonua is going to move into the old Ekele office.

An eight pound devil fish, or squid, was caught at Koolau last week.

At the Kaunakapili services next Sunday John H. Wise will preach.

The infant child of John Sheldon is critically ill from eating raw shell fish.

In spite of an extra watering cart the streets appear to be as dusty as usual.

The final aftermath of the mango crop is disappearing from the fruit stands.

Honolulu Typographical Union No. 37 holds its regular monthly meeting to-morrow night.

Commissioner Marsden has received a large quantity of seeds from the coast for the Government nurseries.

The finishing touches are being put on the stonework of the new Safe Deposit building, and it will soon be ready for occupancy.

The full text of the two appropriation bills passed at yesterday's session of the Council appears in our "By Authority" column.

Workmen are connecting the water mains with the new Masonic building this afternoon, which accounts for the flooded condition of Alakea street.

A stipulation has been filed by the attorneys interested in the Banning case that the administrator may have until August 14th to file his accounts.

Two arrests were made this morning—Keoki for assault and battery committed while under the influence of swipes, and See Ping for having opium in his possession.

The Pacific Hardware Company advertise hand sapolio, a perfectly pure and harmless toilet soap. They have also received a new line of shelf hardware, stoves, house furnishing goods, etc.

Postmaster-General Oat visited and examined nine post offices during his tour of the island. The result of his investigations will be incorporated in an official report to be made after other offices have been visited.

The President has recognized Consul General Wilder, the appointee of the Provisional Government of Hawaii. If he thus recognizes the Provisional Government why does he take so much trouble to look behind it for authority to treat for the annexation of the Islands.—San Francisco Bulletin.

PERSONAL.

Postmaster-General Oat has returned from his trip around the island.

Admiral Skerrett has transferred his flag to the Adams while the Boston is away.

W. E. Rowell, Superintendent of Public Works, returned yesterday from a trip to Kauai.

Col. W. H. Hallet, R. A., who arrived on the City of New York, is stopping in the city.

Rev. Alexander Mackintosh is home again from Wailae, where he has been spending a few days with Paul Isenberg.

Rev. O. P. Emerson has been granted three months leave of absence by the Hawaiian Board, during which he will visit the coast.

The vessel which now seems likely to be ordered to Samoa, in case of serious trouble there, is the Alliance, which is at Callao, and therefore in a convenient position for making the voyage. The Adams, which was at first thought of for the duty, is at Honolulu, and besides the time that might be required to communicate with her on the news of a pressing need at Apia, it is quite evident that Hawaiian affairs are still more important to us than Samoa, and that in the present crisis at Honolulu it is not too much to have both the Boston and the Adams there. The chance of trouble in Peru, which caused the Alliance to be hurried to Callao, still exists, but perhaps the need is less urgent just now than it seemed to be a few weeks ago. If affairs in the Pacific remain in about their present condition a little longer, we shall have no difficulty in supplying naval forces, as the Philadelphia is now on the South American coast on her way around the Horn, and the Charleston and Yorktown will soon follow. When once the Philadelphia is heard from in the Pacific, the Navy Department will probably be able to order the Alliance to Samoa, leaving the Philadelphia to proceed northward and occupy her place in Peruvian waters.—New York Sun.

STEAMER MIKAHALA FROM WINDWARD.

A Quiet Day on the Water Front—Bark Parthenope Discharging Dredger Ready.

The dredger will commence early next week to dredge off Likiep wharf, where there is a big lump of coral which has been a source of great annoyance to the deep-water vessels which are loaded there.

The City of New York left for San Francisco at 11 p. m. last night. She took on two cabin passengers here and fourteen in the steerage, ten of the latter being Japanese.

The Parthenope will finish discharging coal to-morrow. Three men, with Pinkham's coaling outfit at the coal bunkers, have been taking out 300 tons a day.

The schooner Halekaka leaves on her regular trip for firewood to Puna, Hawaii, to-morrow.

The steamer Mikahala arrived this afternoon from her first trip over the W. G. Hall's route.

Fresh trade winds on the water front to-day.

Five vessels are along the water front.

Aim at the Drake

And you are bound to hit some of the ducks. This is precisely the same with

Wampole's Tasteless Preparation

OF

Cod Liver Oil.

It aims to cure Consumption, Hits the Mark, too, and it most effectually breaks up Colds, Coughs, Hoarseness and all Throat and Lung troubles that cause this disease.

It is natural logic to conclude that if WAMPOLE'S PREPARATION OF COD LIVER OIL has power to prevent Consumption, it surely is able to cure these lesser emergencies.

This vigor-making, fat producing preparation is Absolutely Tasteless, in so far as Cod Liver Oil is concerned. All you notice is a delightful flavor of Wild Cherry and Anise.

But the purest Norwegian Cod Liver Oil is there all the same. It is a great blood enricher. Best of all it is a natural food that in its stomachic effects, actually assists its own assimilation.

In Pulmonary or Bronchial troubles it is unequalled. No one doubts the value of Cod Liver Oil, but not every one is able to take it.

WAMPOLE'S PREPARATION

removes the nauseous objection and actually makes Cod Liver Oil palatable.
